This is the speech I gave last night, you can use all or part of it. Up to you.

SPEECH

Good evening.

I would like everyone here that are opposed to recalls and are in favor of Barbara Cowell and Joe Winslow to raise their hands.

OK thank you.

Now I would like everyone here that is against me circulating recalls petitions to raise their hands.

OK thank you.

I say now that everyone that raised his or her hands is a hypocrite.

I say that because if it were not for me circulating recall petitions both Joe and Barbara would not be here right now.

That's right they were both elected on a recall vote.

So much for a double standard.

Mr. Winslow at the last meeting you said that I had done 5 recalls, that is incorrect.

I have never done a recall, it is the people that have done the recalls I have only given them the opportunity to sign petitions and then vote on how they feel.

I have never forced or threatened to machine gun anyone to sign.

It has always been and always will be up to them.

I have never taken pleasure in circulating recall petitions, because I know it is not good for the town, but I also feel that it is much worse for the town to keep people in office that in my opinion and the opinion of many others are not doing the job that they were elected to do.

Thank you.
